Your Health & Wellness

Eating healthy means something different for everyone. For those who swear by the Paleo diet, “healthy” is different from those who have Celiac disease or a dairy intolerance. For those with finicky children, just getting a vegetable into the dinner is an ambitious goal. Our tool will enable you to filter recipes by your specific dietary preferences.

Save Time

Time Savings Pillar: Finding healthy meals that taste good and fit your dietary needs requires time. Our tool takes the time out of planning healthy meals so that you can spend more time doing what you love – cooking, playing with your kids, being outside, or just relaxing.

Save Money

Cost Savings Pillar: Healthy food is an investment in your overall well-being. However, we believe that eating healthy does not need to be a luxury. Our money-saving tool will allow you to have meals planned within your specified budget and to dictate items that you have in your fridge that you want included in the recipes.
